

Print Bookmark Request this item

Guidance on a Human Rights-based Approach in Health and Social Care Services

Author: HIQA; Safeguarding Ireland

Publication Year: 2019

Download

- Human-Rights Approach to Health and Social Care (514k)

Contents

About this guidance

An overview of human rights

The FRED A principles - Human rights in practice

1. Fairness

2. Respect

3. Equality

4. Dignity

5. Autonomy

Extended case studies

Resource 1: Key human rights relevant to health and social care services and how they link to the FRED A principles

Resource 2: Decision-making Flow Chart

Resource 3: Useful contacts and further reading

Description

The guidance was developed in conjunction with Safeguarding Ireland, and was part-funded by the Irish Human Rights and Equality Commission under the Human Rights and Equality Grant Scheme 2017.

The guidance offers a common language and framework to describe a human rights-based approach to care and support for adults. It is a practical and accessible resource that outlines a way of working for frontline health and social care staff to assist them to uphold human rights in their work. The guidance will also help people using services to understand what they should expect from a service that is committed to respecting, protecting and promoting their human rights.

Format	Download
Keywords	human rights, health
Publisher	Health Information and Quality Authority
Classification	human rights
Pages	39
Categories:	Reports, Irish Content
External Link	https://www.hiqa.ie/reports-and-publications/guide/guidance-human-rights-based-approach-health-and-social-care-services