

Print Bookmark Request this item

Forum August 2001

Author: ICGP

Publication Year: 2001

Item available on request

Request this item

Contents

Editorial: The recent CEO's report on the future of Primary Care deserves a fair hearing, Dr Niall Maguire

News: Demands on GMS GPs remain despite fee increases for over 70s, Pilot project on Men's Health, Warning from Poisons Information Centre, Combined obstetric card chaos, Call for medical cards for all under 18s, Motivational interviewing and alcohol problems

Letters: Combined care cards and communication, Iron status in diabetes care

Cover Story: When treating athletes and sports injuries GPs must be vigilant to ensure they are not prescribing banned substances, Dr Aidan O'Colmain

GP Overseas: The system of General Practice in Finland and how Irish GPs could learn from it, Dr Dermot Nolan

Computers: The College website has reached a crossroads and needs the input of members to ensure its success, Dr Brendan O'Shea

Open Forum: Sheppard Memorial prize winner, Dr Seamus MacSuibhne discusses the new order emerging within the medical profession

Practice Management: Practice-related questions answered

Open Forum: It is time to seriously evaluate future challenges facing Irish General Practice, Dr Simon O'Connell

Et cetera: Miscellany of medical matters

Diary: Round up of meetings and events of interest to GPs

Psychiatry: Medical management of depression needs to be conducted in the context of a holistic treatment plan, Dr Siobhan Barry

Dermatology: The advantages of cryosurgery in the treatment of plantar warts, Dr David Buckley

Vaccination: New indepth research from the US has rejected the association between the MMR vaccine and autism, Moira Cassidy Pharmaceutical Update: News from the industry

Clinical Review Service: A selection of reviews of papers from the world's leading medical journals
Latham at Large: This month Dr John Latham proves the truth of the old adage 'a picture is worth a thousand words' while trying to ensure his patients understand what he is telling them
UK View: The General Medical Council needs to modernise fast or face the consequences, Dr Rob Walker

Description

ICGP journal supplement

Format	Print
Keywords	periodicals
Publisher	MedMedia Ltd
Classification	periodicals
Volume	18
Edition	First
ISSN	0790-9977
Pages	59
Categories:	Irish Content, Forum, ICGP Resources