

Print Bookmark Request this item

Unhealthy State

Author: Wren, Maev-Ann

Publication Year: 2003

Item available on request

Request this item

Contents

Preface

Introduction

Part one: Health in an unhealthy state

Part two: Evolution of an unhealthy state

2. Defeat of the early reformers

3. Consultants obstruct free hospital care

4. The unleashing of private medicine

5. The era of cuts

6. No beds no boom

7. The politics of blood

8. Ethics, ownership and the Catholic Church

Part three: A Failed system

9. Two-tier hospital care

10. The potent politics of hospital location

11. When the doctor costs too much

Part 4: Options for reform

12. Health spending and the black hole

13. Reform from quality

14. Private sector solutions

15. Changing the system

16. Lessons from abroad

Part 5: A healthier state

17. A healthier state

Appendix

Glossary

Format Print

Keywords

community health care, emergency health services, health, health acts, health assessment, health authorities, health behaviour, health beliefs, health buildings, health campaigns, health care assistants, health care trusts, health centres, health concepts, health districts, health economics, health education, health education at work, health education projects, health food, health impact assessment, health for all policies, health hazards, health indicators, health inequalities, health informatics, health law, health legislation, health models, health needs, health of the nation policies, health organisations, health outcomes, health policy, health professions, health professions education, health profiling, health promotion, health psychology, health resorts, health service catering, health service charge exemption, health service charges, health service clerical staff, health service computers, health service equipment and supplies, health service facilities, health service financial management, health service interpreters, health service libraries, health service management, health service managers, health service manpower, health service personnel management, health service planning, health service politics, health service professional staff, health service providers, health service provision, health service public relations, health service purchasers, health service reform, health service research, health service secretaries, health service staff, health service staff recruitment, health service standards, health service utilisation, health service working conditions, health services, health services communication

Publisher New Island

Classification community health care

ISBN 1902602889

Pages 445

Categories: Books