

Medication Review: A Guide for GPs: Quick Reference Guide

Author: McCarthy, C.; Sheeran-Purcell, P.; Fitzgerald, L.; Cafferty, O.; Sheeran-Purcell, L.; ICGP Quality in Practice Committee

Publication Year: 2020

Download

- Medication Review: a Guide for GPs (1,144k)

Contents

List of Abbreviations

Section 1: Introduction

Section 1.1: Background

Section 1.2: Aims of this Document

Section 1.3: Key Points / Recommendations

Section 2: Evidence for Medication Reviews and Identifying the Patients to Prioritise

Section 2.1: Evidence that medication reviews may improve prescribing

Section 2.2: Evidence on prioritising patients for regular medication reviews

Section 3: Components of a Medication Review

Section 3.1: Maximising the Effectiveness of Prescribed Treatments

Section 3.2: Reducing Risk and the Need for Monitoring

Section 3.3: Adherence, Patient Priorities and Treatment Burden

Section 3.4: Other Considerations

Section 4: Conclusion

References

Appendix 1: Screening Tool of Older Persons' Prescriptions (STOPP) Version 2

Appendix 2: Screening Tool to Alert to Right Treatment (START)

Appendix 3: Monitoring Guidance for Commonly Prescribed Medication

Format

Download

clinical guidelines, medication safety, monitoring medication,

Keywords Prescribing
Publisher Irish College of General Practitioners
Classification clinical guidelines
Pages 33
Categories: Irish Content, ICGP Resources