

Print Bookmark Request this item

Chronic Disease Management in Ireland Perspectives from patients and clinical stakeholders - implications and recommendations for the Irish healthcare system

Author: Darker, C.; Whiston, L.; O'Shea, B.; Department of Public Health & Primary Care, Trinity College Dublin; ICGP; The Adelaide Health Foundation

Publication Year: 2015

Download

- Chronic Disease Management in Ireland Perspectives from patients and clinical stakeholders (1,750k)

Contents

List of Tables
List of Figures
Summary
Recommendations
Introduction
Section 1 Aim
Section 2 Method
Section 3 Results
Section 4 Discussion
References
Appendix 1: Survey Instrument - general practitioners
Appendix 2: Survey Instrument - hospital consultants
Appendix 3: Survey Instrument - practice nurses
Appendix 4: Survey Instrument - patients

Description

This report reflects a five-year programme of research into the readiness of the Irish healthcare service to respond effectively to chronic disease management.

Format Download

Keywords chronic disease, general practice

Publisher Trinity College Dublin

Classification chronic disease

Pages 80

Categories: Reports, Irish Content

External Link https://medicine.tcd.ie/public_health_primary_care/reports/