

Print Bookmark Request this item

Escalating Violence: how to assess and respond to risk: a review of international experience: report

Author: Murphy, C.; McDonnell, N.; Aoibhneas Women and Children's Refuge
Coolock, Dublin

Publication Year: 2008

Item available on request

Request this item

Contents

Foreword

Introduction

Purpose and Objectives of Assessing Risk of Escalating Violence

Review of Models of Risk Assessment Internationally

Overview of Protocols/Systems in Place in Ireland

Conclusions

Key Recommendations

Appendix 1: Jacquelyn C Campbell's Danger Assessment Model

Appendix 2: Tyagi's Review of Risk-Assessment Models

Bibliography

Description

This study was commissioned by Aoibhneas Women and Children's Refuge to investigate the potential for identifying 'early warning' signs in order to reduce the likelihood of intimate partner homicide occurring.

Format            Print

Keywords        violence in the home

Publisher        Aoibhneas violence in the

Classification home

Pages 40

Categories: Irish Content