

Print Bookmark Request this item

Preventing Chronic Diseases: Defining the Problem: Report from the Prevention of Chronic Disease Programme

Author: Jennings, S.; Health Service Executive

Publication Year: 2014

Download

- Preventing Chronic Disease (2,446k)

Contents

Executive Summary

Chapter 1 Rationale for Addressing the Prevention of Major Chronic Diseases

Chapter 2 Demography and Life Expectancy

Chapter 3 Mortality from Major Chronic Diseases

Chapter 4 Hospitalisations due to Major Chronic Diseases

Chapter 5 Incidence and Prevalence of Major Chronic Diseases in Ireland

Chapter 6 Epidemiology of Lifestyle Risk Factors for Major Chronic Diseases

Chapter 7 Epidemiology of Biomedical Risk Factors for Major Chronic Diseases

Chapter 8 Impact of Risk Factors on Development of Major Chronic Diseases

Abbreviations

Acknowledgements

Appendix A Investment in Populations Health in Five OECD Countries

Appendix B Trends in Cardiovascular Mortality (Male) 1985-2009, Ireland, UK, France and EU15, all ages

Appendix C Quarterly National Household Surveys 2007 and 2010

Appendix D SLAN Series - Self Reported BMI Distribution by Gender, Age and Year (1998, 2002 and 2007)

Description

This important document which sets out the picture of chronic disease and the preventable nature of the underlying risk factors in 21st century Ireland.

Format	Download
Keywords	chronic disease
Publisher	HSE
Classification	chronic disease
ISBN	9781908972057
Pages	92
Categories:	Reports