

Print Bookmark Request this item

Gateways to Counselling - On Listening and Learning

Author: Lago, Colin; Shipton, Geraldine

Publication Year: 1994

Item available on request

Request this item

Contents

Acknowledgements

Introduction

Part I. The development of student counselling

1. Student Counsellors in further and higher education: provision, practice and professional

Part II. Students and their presenting problems

2. Transitions and transformations

3. Main presenting problems

4. Special problems of mature students

5. Special problems of international students

Part III. Work beyond the counselling room

6. The counselling service and the implications of its relationship with others

7. Preventive work

8. Staff training and development

9. Concluding thoughts

Further reading

Training resources

References

Index

Format	Print
Keywords	youth counselling, counselling, counselling by nurses, counselling methods, counselling services, counselling services for nurses, educational counselling, patient counselling
Publisher	Centre for Cross Border Studies/Institute of Public Health in Ireland
Classification	counselling
ISBN	1898458251
Pages	110
Categories:	Books