

Print Bookmark Request this item

Family Care of Dependent Older People in the European Community

Author: European Foundation for the Improvement of Living and Working Conditions

Publication Year: 1993

Item available on request

Request this item

Contents

Introduction
General context
Overview
Demographic context
Changes in family structure
Assessment of dependance
Services for the elderly people and family carers

Caring and carers
Introduction
Who are the carers?
Decisions - Motivations - Limits
The Effects of Time
Carers in paid employment
The burden of caring
Care for carers
Positive aspects
projects - the Future

Policy aspects and recommendations: Caring for the Carers
The general problem welfare

Main characteristics of current policies - convergence and divergences
Policies on caring for carers - between utopia and the first practical implementations
Recommendations for a policy in favour of the family carer

Annexes

Format	Print
Keywords	care, care assistants, carers, access to health care, european community, european directives, older patients, older people
Publisher	BMS Publications Ltd.
Classification	carers
ISBN	9282663558
Pages	187
Categories:	Books