

Print Bookmark Request this item

Submission of the Irish College of General Practitioners to the Oireachtas Joint Committee on the Future of Mental Health Care in relation to GP led primary care expansion: improving care for people with mental health needs

Author: ICGP

Publication Year: 2017

Download

- ICGP Submission on the Future of Mental Health in relation to GP led primary care expansion (192k)

Contents

Opening Statement

Introduction

Stronger primary care

Concluding comments

Action points identified by the ICGP

References/Appended documents

Description

The crisis in mental health services in Ireland has become a crisis in general practice according to the Irish College of General Practice (ICGP), which presented a detailed submission to the Oireachtas Joint Committee on Mental Health in relation to GP-led primary care expansion on Thursday 14 December 2017.

Format Download

Keywords health policy, strategic planning

Publisher Irish College of General Practitioners

Classification health policy

Pages 10

Categories: Reports, Irish Content, ICGP Resources