

Print Bookmark Request this item

Prescribing in Primary Care

Author: Hobbs, Richard; Bradley, Colin

Publication Year: 1988

Item available on request

Request this item

Contents

Foreword

Preface

List of contributors

Abbreviations and acronyms

1. Attempts to influence prescribing in the UK

2. National and international patterns of drug use

3. The development of new drugs

4. Licensing and marketing of drugs

5. How doctors choose drugs

6. Approaches to rational prescribing

7. Health economics and prescribing

8. Impact of the UK healthcare reforms on prescribing

9. Responding to changing healthcare systems: adapting prescribing in the new NHS

10. Non-prescription or over-the-counter medicines and the role of the pharmacist

11. Prescribing a complementary therapy; an introduction to homoeopathy

12. The future of prescribing in medicine

Appendices

Index

Format Print

Keywords prescription writing, psychopharmacology, pharmaceutical industry, pharmaceutical services, pharmacists, pharmacodynamics, pharmacology, pharmacopoeias, drugs, nurse prescribing

Publisher Oxford University Press

Classification pharmacists

Volume 42

ISBN 0192626876

Series Oxford General Practice

Pages 208

Categories: Books