

Print Bookmark Request this item

Motivational Interviewing Preparing People to Change Addictive Behaviour

Author: Miller, William R.; Rollnick, Stephen

Publication Year: 1991

Item available on request

Request this item

Contents

The atmosphere of change

What motivates people to change?

Brief intervention: More pieces of the puzzle

Principles of motivational interviewing

Building motivation for change

Using assessment results

Dealing with resistance

Strengthening commitment to change

Typical and difficult situations

A practical case example

Teaching motivational interviewing

Motivational interviewing and the stages of change

Brief motivational interviewing for use by the nonspecialist

Motivational interviewing: perspectives from the Netherlands with particular emphasis on heroin-dependent clients

Motivational counselling with alcoholic couples

Reinforcing robust resolutions: motivation in relapse prevention with severely dependent problem drinkers

Motivational interviewing with young people

Alcohol use and goal hierarchies: systematic motivational counselling for alcoholics

Dealing with alcohol problems in the community

Motivational intervention with heroin users attending a methadone clinic

Motivational interviewing for HIV risk reduction

Motivational intervention in the treatment of sex offenders
Motivational interviewing and the maintenance of change
References
Index

Format	Print
Keywords	addiction
Publisher	The Guilford Press
Classification	addiction
Edition	First
ISBN	0-89862-566-1
Pages	348
Categories:	Books