

Print Bookmark Request this item

Response of the irish Division, Royal College of Psychiatrists to "Psychiatric Services - Planning for the future"

Author: Royal College of Psychiatrists;E. Merick Ltd.

Publication Year: 1986

Item available on request

Request this item

Contents

Authorship

Consultation

The general nature of the report

The mental hospital and its future

Expectations of community care

Existing rehabilitation services

Financial implications

"Sectorisation"

Integration of psychiatric with general medical services

Psychiatry and general practice

Staffing norms

The role of general hospital units

Forensic psychiatric services

Monitoring of services

Morale and leadership

Special needs of teaching units

The 'R.M.S.' grade

The role of psychiatric social workers

Drug-related problems

Alcohol-related disorders

The private sector

The elderly mentally infirm

In-patient services
Services for children and adolescents
Services for the mentally handicapped

Format	Print
Keywords	psychology
Publisher	Royal College of Psychiatrists
Classification	psychology
Publication Date	27-Mar-86
Edition	First
Pages	40
Categories:	Reports