

Print Bookmark Request this item

Primary Health care in Undergraduate Medical Education Report on a WHO meeting

Author: World Health Organization

Publication Year: 1983

Item available on request

Request this item

Contents

The seminar in the context of the regional strategy for health for all
Obstacles to reorienting medical education to primary health care
Overcoming the obstacles
Conditions necessary to reorient medical education to primary health care
The community as the training setting for primary health care
Orienting the medical school as a whole towards primary health care
Research related to education for primary health care
Recommendations
References
Bibliography
Set of five questions sent to participants
Summaries in french, german and russian

Format	Print
Keywords	medical education
Publisher	World Health Organization
Classification	medical education
Edition	First
ISBN	92-890-1027-4
Pages	64
Categories:	Reports