

Guidelines - Recorded Patient Consultations for Training Practices and CME (Continuous Medical Education) Groups

Author: ICGP; PGTC

Publication Year: 2018

Download

- Guidelines for Recording Consultations (988k)

Contents

1. Important Notices
2. Documentation
3. Protocols in obtaining and recording patient consent
4. Security of recorded consultations on video equipment and digital media
5. Role of Practice Secretary/Receptionist
6. Role of GP Registrars
7. Role of Trainer
8. Role of Programme Directing Team
9. Patient Information Leaflet
10. Information for Practice Secretary/Receptionist
11. Notice to Patients
12. Consent Form
13. Training Practice Protocol Form
14. Practice Record Log of Recorded Consultations Form
15. Acknowledgements

Description

Adopted by PGTC - May 2017

Revised September 2018

Recording of consultations in this document refers to all modes of recording consultations including but not restricted to audio, video, electronic, digital camera recordings of consultations.

Format	Download
Keywords	consultations, guidelines, video recordings
Publisher	Irish College of General Practitioners
Classification	consultations
Pages	13
Categories:	Irish Content, ICGP Resources