

Print Bookmark Request this item

Forum January 2000

Author: ICGP

Publication Year: 2000

Item available on request

Request this item

Contents

Editorial: Dr Leonard Condren looks to the future with renewed hope as his Ballyfermot patients begin to reap the benefits of the Celtic Tiger and take pride in losing their GMS cards as they find employment

News: New occupational health service for ICGP members, Doctors warned of serious consequences of complacency in obtaining patient consent, Women lagging behind in health service job promotions

Letters: Software user group meetings, Many reasons for dearth of discharge letters

Cover Story: Launched in 1991 as Ireland's first full colour monthly for GPs, this month sees the publication of the 100th issue of Forum, Geraldine Meagan

Practice Management: Practice-related questions answered

Computers: Free internet service providers may not be as 'free' as they seem, Dr Brian Meade

GP Training: The Southeast scheme aims to ensure GP training is an ever-changing process, continuously reflecting the demands of daily General Practice, Dr Martin Rouse

Teaching: Out with didactic lectures and in with new methods of learning which allow students to become more active participants in their own education, Dr Maureen Kelly

Et cetera: Miscellany of medical matters

Diary: Round up of meetings and events of interest to GPs

Clinical Review: While many practices have developed comprehensive diabetes programmes, GP diabetic care throughout the country remains patchy and unstructured, Dr Tony O'Sullivan

Vaccination: A correct clinical diagnosis of influenza will not only aid appropriate patient treatment but will also provide the necessary warning signs of an epidemic

or even a pandemic, Anne Henrichsen

Pain Management: New advances in pain assessment and control, Geraldine Meagan

Pharmaceutical Update: News from the industry

Clinical Review Service: A selection of reviews of papers from the world's leading medical journals

Latham at Large: In 100 or 1,000 years time, will people know of the struggles of inner city dwellers in the face of drug addiction and HIV infection, Dr John Latham

UK View: New UK proposals aimed at ousting the small number of GPs who provide poor or inadequate care look set to deprive the profession of the right to regulate itself, Dr Rob Walker

Description

ICGP journal supplement

Format Print

Keywords periodicals

Publisher MedMedia Ltd

Classification periodicals

Volume 17

Edition First

ISSN 0790-9977

Pages 55

Categories: Irish Content, Forum, ICGP Resources