

ICGP submission to the Oireachtas Committee on the Eighth Amendment: Irish general practice perspective on crisis pregnancy, focusing on the health of the woman, with no distinction drawn between physical and mental health

Author: ICGP

Publication Year: 2017

Download

- ICGP submission to the Oireachtas Committee on the Eighth Amendment (233k)

Contents

1. Introduction
2. Crisis Pregnancy
3. Prevention of crisis pregnancy: contraception, emergency contraception and education initiatives
4. Management of crisis pregnancy
5. Impact of the health of the woman
6. Summary
7. References

Description

Dr Brendan O'Shea and Dr Karena Hanley presented to the Oireachtas Committee on the Eighth Amendment on Thursday 12th October 2017 in relation to the Irish general practice perspective on crisis pregnancy, focusing on the health of the woman, with no distinction drawn between physical and mental, in the context of the Eighth Amendment of the Irish Constitution.

Format Download

Keywords health policy, women's health, abortion, general practice

Publisher Irish College of General Practitioners

Classification health policy

Pages 9

Categories: Reports, Irish Content, ICGP Resources