

Print Bookmark Request this item

Report of the Committee of Inquiry into the Regulation of the Medical Profession

Author: Merrison, A. W. Dr.

Publication Year: 1975

Item available on request

Request this item

Contents

Introduction

Appointment and terms of reference

Our manner of working and reporting

Chapter 1: Main principles and problems of regulating the medical profession

Chapter 2: Education and registration

Preamble

Part A: Education and registration

Part B: The existing system of medical registration and control of education

Part C: What is to be done?

Part D: General aspects of the control of medical education

Part E: The Future Control of Undergraduate Medical Education

Part F: The Emerging Clinician, from Graduate to practitioner

Part G: Specialist Education

Part H: Specialist Registration

Part J: Miscellaneous

Part K: Conclusions and recommendations

Chapter 3: Overseas Doctors

Preamble

Part A: The nature and scale of the problem

Part B: The present arrangements

Part C: The standards of overseas Doctors

Part D: Our General View
Part E: The GMC's Proposals
Part F: Fitness to Practice controls overseas-trained doctors
Part G: The European Economic Community
Part H: Conclusions and Recommendations

Chapter 4: Fitness to practice

Preamble

Part A: The present system of controlling fitness to practice
Part B: Our general approach
Part C: Information on fitness to practice
Part D: Professional Conduct
Part E: The Sick Doctor
Part F: The relationship between the NHS and the GMC in relation to fitness to practice
Part G: Conclusions and recommendations

Chapter 5: Other functions of the GMC

Part A: The establishment of high standards of professional conduct
Part B: Pretending to be a registered medical practitioner
Part C: The Mechanics of registration
Part D: Our principal recommendations in Chapter 5

Chapter 6: The Regulating Body

Part A: Basic principles of composition
Part B: Our detailed structural proposals
Part C: The finance of the GMC
Part D: Conclusions and recommendations

The Implementation of our report

Appendices

General

Part A: NHS Control procedures
Part B: Notification to the GMC of doctors convicted of an offence in a court of law
Part C: Control over the possession and supply by doctors of dangerous or otherwise harmful drugs

Format

Print

birth registration, professional registration, consultants and

Keywords technical specialists, clinical nurse specialists, education, specialist hospitals, state registration of nurses, reports, fitness, nursing reports, nursing specialists, medical profession, health visitor specialists

Publisher Her Majesty's Stationary Office

Classification professional registration

ISBN 0101601808

Pages 190

Categories: Reports