

Print Bookmark Request this item

Impact of the introduction of an occupational therapy service to an Irish mental health setting: service users and staff perspectives

Author: Brangan, Joan;HSE;Trinity College Dublin

Publication Year: 2009

Download

- Occupational Therapy Service (1,297k)

Contents

Acknowledgements

Executive Summary

Introduction

Did the programme meet its objectives from the client's perspectives? (Excerpts from client interviews)

Outcome of interviews with clients

Did the programme meet its objectives from the staff's perspectives? (Excerpts from staff interviews and outcomes)

Summary

Recommendations

References

Description

This report is a review of a six month pilot project involving the introduction of a new Occupational Therapy Service in St. Brigid's Hospital, Ardee, Co. Louth.

Format      Download

Keywords    occupational therapy, mental health

Publisher    HSE

Classification occupational therapy

Alternative Title Review of the Occupational Therapy six month pilot project, St. Brigid's Hospital, Ardee, Co. Louth

Pages 15

Categories: Reports, Irish Content