

Access to diagnostics: A key enabler for a primary care led health service

Author: O'Riordan, Margaret; Collins, Claire; Doran, Gillian

Publication Year: 2013

Download

- Access to diagnostics: A key enabler for a primary care led health service. (523k)

Contents

Executive Summary

Key Findings

Recommendations

Conclusion

Introduction

GP Access to Diagnostics - the International Experience

Appropriateness of referrals and diagnostic yield

Exposure to radiation

Delay in diagnosis

Impact on referrals

Service provision

Modifying test ordering behaviour

Methods

Results

Demographics

Table 1: Years in General Practice

Table 2: Practice Location

Table 3: Distance from an acute hospital

Access to services

Access protocols

Table 4: Direct access to diagnostics in the public system

Table 5: Direct access to diagnostics in the private system

Table 6: Protocol provision for access to diagnostics

Table 7: Opinions on improved access to diagnostics

Discussion

Recommendations

Conclusion

References

Format	Download
Keywords	tests, general practice, laboratory diagnosis, patient referral
Publisher	Irish College of General Practitioners
Classification	general practice
Publication Date	05-Jan-13
Pages	10
Categories:	Irish Content, ICGP Resources