

Print Bookmark Request this item

Health Service Executive Emergency Departments: Patient Profiles, Experiences and Perceptions: Report of a National Survey among people who attended during 2006

Author: HSE;Irish Society for Quality & Safety in Healthcare; RCSI

Publication Year: 2006

Download

- HSE Emergency Departments Patient Profiles (701k)

Contents

Foreword

Executive Summary

Introduction

Methodology

Results

Section 1: Profile of Respondents

Section 2: Arriving at the Emergency Department

Section 2.1: Referral type

Section 2.2: Nature of Presenting Complaint

Section 2.3: Assessment and treatment

Section 3: Patient care and treatment

Section 3.1: Information/communication

Section 3.2: Test information

Section 3.3: Pain

Section 4: Leaving the Emergency Department

Section 4.1: Outcome

Section 4.2: Information leaving the Emergency Department

Section 5: Knowledge and Respect

Section 5.1: Dignity and Respect

Section 5.2: Knowledge

Section 6: Overall

Section 6.1 Overall Satisfaction

Section 6.2: Return to the same Emergency Department

Section 7: Key Driver Analysis

Section 8: Conclusions

Footnotes

Appendices

References

Format Download

Keywords accident and emergency departments, patient satisfaction

Publisher HSE

Classification patient satisfaction

Pages 40

Categories: Reports, Irish Content