

Print Bookmark Request this item

A survey of GP experience with the work of the National Cancer Control Programme and their views in relation to service priorities

Author: O'Shea, Marie T.; Collins, Claire Dr.

Publication Year: 2016

Download

- GP experience with the National Cancer Control Programme (1,458k)

Contents

Executive Summary

Introduction

Cancer mortality

Cancer survival trends

The role of the GP

Familial risk of cancer

Cancer survivorship

Co-morbidity

The National Cancer Control Programme

Methodology

Aims and objectives

Study design

Data analysis

Findings

Section 1: Demographics and Respondent Profiles

Section 2: Referrals

Section 3: Other cancers

Section 4: Targeted assessment of 'high risk individuals'

Section 5: Cancer survivorship

Discussion and Recommendations

References

Format Download

Keywords general practice, surveys, cancer

Publisher Irish College of General Practitioners

Pages 34

Categories: Reports, Irish Content, ICGP Resources