

ICGP Approved Studies 2021

Study Title
A mixed methods study of Post-Acute COVID-19 Sequelae in general practice.
Assessment of Direct Oral Anticoagulation (DOAC) medication knowledge amongst patients with atrial fibrillation in a primary care setting in the Southwest of Ireland.
A survey of primary healthcare providers attitudes and experience in providing care to transgender patients.
Management of Atrial Fibrillation in Irish General Practice and Integrated Care (MAGIC).
Linking and harnessing health and population data to improve outcomes in Out-of-Hospital Cardiac Arrest.
Crisis in General Practice: Irish general practitioners' vision for the future of the profession and how to get there.
An Evaluation of the Social Deprivation Practice Grant in Irish General Practice
Maximising medication adherence and minimising physician inertia: Lowering to target the blood pressure of older patients with hypertension – A collective intelligence workshop.
DOAC Monitoring in Primary Care: A Clinical Audit.
Sequential application of Chloropropene and Betadine and effects on microbial skin carriage. A pilot study.
A qualitative evaluation of staff user experience with emergency department discharge coding.
Supporting medical students towards future careers in general practice: an analysis of applications from Irish medical schools to General Practice Training programs 2017-2021.
Direct access to diagnostic imaging in general practice: A mixed methods study.
Evaluation of Remote Telemedicine Enabled Opiate Agonist Treatment in Ireland.
General practitioners' views of degenerative meniscal tears and their management: a qualitative interview study.
Perception amongst migrants from Brazil, Poland, Romania, Lithuania, Nigeria and Pakistan of General Practitioners in Ireland.
A profile of physical activity and sarcopenia in community dwelling older adults referred to a primary care physiotherapy service: a mixed-methods study.
The provision of wound care management in community health care settings: An Exploratory Study.
Medical Emergency Responders: Integration and Training.
COVID-19 in Ireland: general practice's contribution to testing and vaccination.
Emergency Medical Services Contribution to the Covid 19 Pandemic Response.
Investigating the career choices of female GPs in the years following and two years prior to MICGP qualification.
Survey of Experience of Virtual Appointments and Meetings in the Dublin North Community Mental Health Service throughout the Covid-19 pandemic.
Application of Stoppfrail Deprescribing tool in general practice.

ICGP Approved Studies 2021

Collaboration to reduce antimicrobial use and Resistance and identify opportunities for improvement and Awareness – CARA.
Online health supports and GP practice patients.
EMERGE (Effect of COVID-19 and government restrictions on the sexual health and well-being of gay and bisexual men in Ireland).
An investigation of cardiovascular comorbidity and awareness of cardiovascular risk amongst patients diagnosed with severe psoriasis in Dublin general practice.
Primary Care Encounters During Covid-19: A Retrospective Analysis at a Primary Care Centre in Ireland.
Living with COPD in the Community During the COVID-19 Pandemic: an Exploration of Patients' Perspectives.
Perceptions of and attitudes towards problematic polypharmacy and prescribing cascades in older people: a stakeholder analysis.
Beliefs, Barriers and Enablers to Exercise Prescription for Hip and Knee Osteoarthritis in General Practice in Ireland.
Evaluation of ICGP Pilot Mentorship Project.
Remote sharing of data for improved caseload management in speech and language therapy SHARE
'Medical Assistance in Dying' (MAiD): The General Practitioner's View.
Weight bias among Irelands next generation of General Practitioners.
General Practitioners' Knowledge, Use and Confidence in Physical Activity Guidelines and Exercise Prescription in Ireland
An examination of the availability of direct access BNP/NT-proBNP blood test analysis from laboratories in CHO 8 (HSE region: Laois, Offaly, Westmeath and Longford) for GP's.
GP Registrar and General Practitioner confidence in treating Transgender patients: How confidence are General Practitioners in their approach when they have a patient who identifies as Transgender in the consulting room.
Are suspected UTIs being over-treated in General Practice?
Intimate Partner Violence: An Exploration of Knowledge and Understanding of GP Trainees and GP Trainers.
Are GP trainees comfortable with discussing and managing issues in patient with gender dysphoria?
A multi-site study looking at abortion care in five general practices with a focus on post abortion contraception.
Does media coverage of healthcare related issues influence the general practice consultation?: The GP registrars' perspective.
Assessing GP Registrar's knowledge of barriers to inhaler compliance.
Exploring the attitudes, beliefs, experience and perceptions of midland General Practitioners towards increased telephone consultations in the COVID era.
Long Covid Symptoms in Patients of an Irish GP Practice.
General Practitioner's and GP Registrar's knowledge of prescribing guidelines and awareness of discontinuation effects of Denosumab therapy (Prolia) for the treatment of osteoporosis in Primary care.
General Practice Receptionists' Experiences of Triage in the Workplace: A Cross-sectional Descriptive Stud
An Audit of Lifestyle Interventions for Non-alcoholic fatty-liver disease
Postnatal Depression at the Six Week Check: Approaches among GP Registrars.