

Criteria for Satisfactory Completion of Training in General Practice

A Certificate of Satisfactory Completion of GP Training which allows entry onto the General Practitioner Specialist Register is issued by the ICGP on two conditions: success in the MICGP examination and Notification by the training scheme of Satisfactory Completion of Training. Completion of Training. Completion of Training requires satisfactory completion of the following:

Extract from Criteria for Postgraduate Training Programmes in General Practice Document 2016

- 9.1 It is necessary to complete four years, at least 50% of which must be in general practice medicine attached to a recognised training scheme. Training should be completed within six years of commencement to preserve the educational integrity of the training process.
- 9.2 The chairman of a steering committee and programme director will sign the nomination letter indicating completion of training when the following documents are completed and submitted by the trainee to the Steering Committee via the Programme Director
  - 9.2.1 Trainee Hospital Logs for each hospital training post,
  - 9.2.2 Consultant Teacher Reports* for each hospital training post,
  - 9.2.3 Trainee logs for each GP Practice training post,
  - 9.2.4 Trainer reports* for each GP Practice training post,
  - 9.2.5 Programme directing team reports* for attendance and overall participation in the day-release course
  - 9.2.6 Written trainee analysis of video-recorded real patient consultations to the standard required by the scheme,
  - 9.2.7 A current certificate in Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation,
  - 9.2.8 ICGP Women's Health Log,
  - 9.2.9 Written audit/research project to the standard required by the scheme,
  - 9.2.10 A minimum of 120 hours per year in General Practice out-of-hours duty.

*Reports must certify

- (a) at least 75% attendance (in post);
- (b) active participation in training;
- (c) satisfactory skills and performance standards..