

ICGP Quality and Safety Improvement

Awards 2023 – 2024

Terms & Conditions

1. Members of the ICGP in good standing are eligible to enter this competition.
2. Applicants should be enrolled and in compliance with the ICGP PCS or enrolled in GP specialist training with the ICGP.
3. Entries must demonstrate improvements or innovations implemented in a general practice setting in Ireland.
4. Projects completed in 2023 or by the closing date in 2024 are eligible for submission.
5. All entries must be in typed format on the official application form.
6. The word count is provided on the application form and should not be exceeded.
7. Applications will be accepted via email only to gip@icgp.ie
8. Application emails should have 'ICGP QSIP Awards 2023/2024' as the subject title.
9. Closing date for entries is Wednesday, 31st of July 2024 at 5pm
10. Finalists should be available to make a three-minute summary presentation on their submission at the ICGP Annual Conference which will be held in the Dublin Convention Centre on the 27th of September 2024 as part of the WONCA Europe Conference, where awards will be presented.
11. The ICGP retains copyright over all entries.
12. Submitted entry forms will not be returned so applicants should retain their own copy.
13. The decision of the judges is final, and they reserve the right not to make an award depending on the quality of submissions.
14. Entries submitted after the closing date will not be considered.
15. Projects previously submitted to an ICGP competition are not eligible.
16. By applying for a QSIP award, applicants are accepting the ICGP privacy policy.